KAIST CAMPUS Asia
Research-oriented Program

Available Programs

⭐ 2023 Fall KAIST CAMPUS Asia Research-oriented Program

  * Program Duration: October 2, 2023 – December 30, 2023
  – Dormitory check-in: October 2
  – Orientation session: October 4
  – Dormitory check-out: December 30
  – Research participation period: October 5 – December 29

Program Descrpition

Students can apply for three laboratories of interest. Students are assigned to a lab and conduct research under the supervision of a KAIST faculty member for the program period.
A basic-level Korean language course, day trip, KAIST buddy service are provided for free, and on or off-campus accommodation will be provided by KAIST.

Eligibility Requirements

- 3rd or 4th-year undergraduate or graduate students currently enrolled in Tsinghua, Tokyo Tech, or NTU majoring in STEM fields
- whose nationality is Chinese, Japanese, or Singaporean
- who have attained a minimum culmulative GPA of 2.7 on a 4.0 scale, 2.0 on a 3.0 scale, 3.5 on a 5.0 scale
- English test score higher than TOEFL iBT 70 / TOEIC 625 / IELTS Overball Band 5.5

Inquiries

Tokyo Tech
  Ms. Kumie Aoki / campusasia@jim.titech.ac.jp
Tsinghua
  Ms. Liu Dongni / dongni@mail.tsinghua.edu.cn
NTU
  Ms. Koh Sok Khing / sokkhing.koh@ntu.edu.sg
  Ms. Jean Hew Ghim Foon / jgfhew@ntu.edu.sg

We look forward to your active participation!

T²KN CAMPUS Asia Plus Consortium   KAIST